S. S. C. ROCKACHAWS TIE JESUITS IN TOY BOWL CLASSIC AT ORLEANS

Ten Thousand Fans Watch Teams Struggle For Trophy—
Score 6-6 With Stanislaus Scoring First—Outstanding Players—Bay Bands Attend.

As the largest crowd ever to attend a Toy Bowl game watched in heated excitement, the St. Stanislaus Rockachaws and the Jesuit Blue
Jays battle to a 6-6 tie.

The game got off to a rather fast start after the Rocks failed to gain and yardage. The Jays took the ball from the 'Chaw thirty five and marched to the five where they were stopped by the Rock forward wall.

In the second quarter the Jays
again went down into Rock territory but failed to get any where and lost the ball on downs.

In the third period, after an exchange of plays between the two teams, the Jays found themselves backed up against their own goal and tried to kick. Didier, however broke through the Jay line and blocked Key's punt. The Rocks recovered and in two plays crossed the goal-line. Stanislaus half back, ran the ball from the fifteen yard line
and crossed the goal with a Blue Jays hanging on.

Immediately following this the Jays made a steady march down the field in what seemed a touchdown
march. They were unsuccessful, however, as they lost the ball on downs.

In the closing minutes of the contest the Jays again made a march down the field. This time they were successful. Bruno, after two tries finally managed to cross the line.

Wallace Stalaker, Joe Folse, Mel-roy Didier and Frank Winn played outstandingly for the Rocks while Pershing Cashen, and Phil Bruno looked best for the Jays.

The students of St. Joseph's Academy and the St. Stanislaus Band performed at the half. The girls formed an animated Christmas tree with the words "Times-Picayune" written at the top while the band played "Jingle Bells."

BAY ST. LOUIS DIST. NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN

Held Meeting at Gulfport
Wednesday, With Mrs. G.
Y. Blaize, President, in The Chair.

The regular monthly meeting of the Bay St. Louis District of National Council of Catholic Women
was held in Gulfport Wednesday, December 14, with Mrs. G. Y. Blaize, president, in the chair.

In spite of the inclement weather
there were thirty-six members present. Meeting opened with prayer
by Father Lilley.

The State president's message,
wishing all a holy and happy Christmas, was read by Mrs. Schloegel of Gulfport. Reports of charity and activities were read by Mrs. C. A.
Gordon, Bay St. Louis. Mrs. M.
Farrell, of Pass Christian, Mrs. Terrell of Long Beach and Mrs. Schloegel of Gulfport.

Large boxes of beautiful Christmas packages were gathered for the orphans. Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch's speech, though impromptu, was of sound advice. It was, "Let's get acquainted with the Catholics of our parish."

Mrs. Van Cloostere of Long Beach described her attendance at the first meeting of the Catholic youth organization, with Miss Kempel of Washington, D. C. Mrs. J. C. Clancy
read a paper on the "forgotten man," which only too often is our own Pastor.

The closing prayer was by Father Hayes. The social hour with the ladies of Gulfport serving delicious refreshments brought a very interesting meeting to a close.

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL P. T. A. HOLDS MEETING PRESENTING PROGRAM

Christmas Tree Entertainment Follows Adjournment of Business Session.

The P. T. A. of Bay Central Hi-
School had its regular monthly meeting in the school auditorium.
The president being absent, Mrs.
W. S. Speer presided. Miss Loretta
Smith, the secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Mrs.
Roland Weston gave the financial report. There was an unusually large crowd present.

Mrs. Carl Smith had the opening exercises given by the second grade, rendering a very beautiful program of songs and readings. Miss Temple who was to give the president's address, asked Rev. A. J. Boyles to bring the message, entitled, "Joy to The World." He made a very interesting and helpful Christmas talk.

After the program, all the members and visitors retired to the Home Economics room, where the third grade boys and girls, together with the parents and teachers of that grade served very delectable refreshments. The spirit of Christmas was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. The Xmas tree was loaded down with gifts for everyone, a red bag of candy.

FOR XMAS TREES IN THE OPEN

Mississippi Power Co., Offers Prize of Fine Lamp
For Best Decorated
Tree.

With its well known enterprise
and to stimulate further the Christmas spirit, the Mississippi Power Company offers to give one of its well known indirect lamps as a prize to the party having the best outside lighted Christmas tree or lighted doorway in this section.

In a letter from J. T. Dailier, division manager, to M. L. Ansley, resident representative, he says:
"I wish you would get in touch with the party in charge of Christmas lighting and advise them that the prize will be given on the recommendation of their local committee
and at their selection."

There is no original committee to handle such suggested enterprise, as
yet. Possibly the Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce or any other civic-minded organization might get in touch with Mr. Ansley and "get busy." Time is short and immediate action is necessary. Bay St. Louis is no less Christmas conscious than any other town.

There will be a meeting of St.
Stanislaus Mothers' Club this Friday afternoon at the college lounge.

ident, Mrs. Carrere, to attend. The

GARDEN CLUB HEARS SPEAKER

Cornell University Entomologist Discusses Conservation and Bees.

Speaking to a fairly good sized audience of ladies and gentlemen
at Hotel Reed Thursday night, Prof.
George H. Rea, of the department of entomology, Cornell University, as guest of the Bay St. Louis Garden Club, was the program speaker of the evening.

His subject was conservation and since the culture of bees is so closely related to gardens he spoke seemingly all too briefly on the subject of the busy little worker.

He said honey was the oldest sweet in the history of man, since it dates back to the old testament.
It was the purest and most wholesome of all products of its kind, containing elements that were good for the human system and, not like other and modern sweets, that are injurious to the general human being.

Modern sweets, extracting juices
from fruit, only dated back to some one hundred and seventy-years back. Honey was pure and contained no adulterants.

He told of the habit of the bee,
its life, construction and peculiar functions. The bee, he said, was necessary for pollination. Crops suffered where there were no bees and every successful farmer had his apiary.

Dwelling on conservation he said
it took two hundred years to produce one inch of leaf mold; that it was wrong to destroy leaves and deplore
the depletion of forests.

On entomologist thoroughly conversant with his subject to the very finger tips, and eschewing technical terms, his address was replete with information and carried a message for conservation that would bring response.

Mrs. George R. Rea, president of the club, presided with Mrs. E. Mogabgab as secretary, and Mrs. Leo
W. Seal, treasurer, at the table.
Distinguished guests were noted in the audience.

PUBLIC NOW BUYS HIGH GRADE AND GLENER PECANS.

Pioneer Buyer and Seller Tells of Wants and How
The Trade is Supplied.

A visit to A. Palmisano's place of business, in Uman avenue, Old Spanish Trail, No. 90, reveals different kinds of pecans on sale to the passing and resident public as well.
Mr. Palmisano has been in the buying and selling pecan business for a period of thirty-three years, a veritable pioneer in an industry in this section of the Deep South that has grown to huge proportions.

Here one finds the better grade of pecans, such as the famous Schley, Stewart, Success and the various other various kinds that stand promi-nently in the market and with the discriminating public. The stock is all graded, strictly making for uniformity—size and quality without question and better still all stock has been thoroughly cleaned of all outer growth or accumulation of dirt. Empty a sack of these pecans, any one, says Mr. Palmisano, on your carpets
in the house and there'll be no dust.

Hence, buying from this stock one buys only what he pays for and no dead weight. No dirt, no waste, no mixture of grades.

"It pays to sell the public the best,"
said Mr. Palmisano. "The public gets what he pays for, and on every purchase we give a guarantee. Money back, if wanted, without argument."

Another feature of this vast and varied stock is the polished pecan, something new and pleasing to the eye. This grade goes through a machine that cleans the nut thoroughly after first being washed and put through a mechanical contrivance that imparts a beautiful polish. This is something new and sells in the big city at a fancy price while Mr.
Palmisano sells at practically no advance. The pecan is of high grade and in keeping with the attractive outer shell. This stock is ideal for presentation as a gift or to be used for decorative purpose. The demand for the polished pecan in shell is fast growing and is increasing with the advent of the holidays.

With the approach of Christmas and the holiday season in general
the stock at Palmisano's Restaurant and Grocery offers a wide and varied assortment, good stock at low prices. Sold in any quantity.

CHRISTMAS TREE FOR NEEDY TO BRING SMILES TO MANY IN BAY SECTION

Revival of Christmas Tree to Bring Happiness on Occasion of Year's Greatest Feast—Contributions Now Total $228.25.

The revival of the Christmas tree
St. Stanislaus has met with widespread popularity. Donations have increased considerably since the publication of the last issue. Christmas will mean something to the many poor and needy families of Bay St. Louis, this year. Brother Peter has commented that the result of the Crusade has met with great success. A sum total of $116.25 has been gratefully received.
However, the drive has not been drawn to a close. There is need of more funds, to make the event more successful, so that no family may be denied of anything. Brother Peter's original plan was to make every needy family around here, as happy as funds would allow. His Christmas Trees of the past have always been successful and by what the generous donations so far show,
this will be no exception.

Most certain it is that the students will aid in arrangements for the distribution of the presents. The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club is backing up the drive.

The following donations have been gratefully acknowledged:
Previously acknowledged $40.65
John W. Barker 5.00
Joseph O'Dwyer 5.00
George E. Pitcher 5.00
Ben Casanas 5.00
Chas. H. Hamilton 5.00
Dr. Felix A. Blanchard 5.00
Edward Koch 5.00
Sophomore B Class 5.00
Mrs. E. P. Brien 2.00
Jeff Restobek 5.00
Mrs. Leon Klempeter 2.00
Evans Brien 1.50
Leslie Lampton 1.00

Most certain it is that the students will aid in arrangements for the distribution of the presents. The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club is backing up the drive.

Bay St. Louis Son Praised as Retiring Mayor of Monticello.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the town of Monticello, Miss., up in Lawrence county, adopted resolutions at its December meeting
commending Mayor D. Edgar Driver, native son of Bay St. Louis, for serving the town of Monticello capably and consistently for 23 years.

CARNEGIE TECH TEAM WILL ARRIVE IN BAY MORNING OF DEC. 19

Sugar Bowl Team to Train on Campus of Saint Stanislaus—Will Be Domiciled at Reed Hotel—

FIESTA SUNDAY DEC. 18TH.

Pre-Christmas Event To Be Presented Under Auspices
Parents' Club

After weeks of planning and activities of St. Joseph Academy Parents' Club are ready to present the annual Christmas fiesta and bazaar this Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock, at St. Joseph Gym. This affair will prove of more than ordinary interest for the reason it is practically on the eve of Christmas and fits in well with the scheme of holiday diversion and lends spirit and casts an atmosphere of joyousness.

The fiesta is a combination of various phases of entertainment—several features combined into one.

There will be a display of extensive handiwork at the bazaar booths.
Ladies clever in ideas and with the needle have been working for weeks turning out the most original and intriguing kind of gifts. There will be a liberal touch of Mexican work and things of the Gypsy theme. This will include dolls in various costumes, including the nun portrayals;
embroidered aprons pillow cases,
luncheon sets and whatnot.

Restaurant Feature
For the appeasement of the hungry or those inclined to a tempting bite or snack, there will be chicken and potato salad, hot dogs, sandwiches of various kinds and cakes galore. Then there will be the coffee of the kind you like—the good old kind that is proverbial with all dispensers of Bay St. Louis hospitality. It is suggested to enjoy Sunday supper at the fiesta restaurant.

Entertainment
Neither has this phase of the affair been overlooked. A picked group of trained singers in vested garb will present Christmas carols
through the evening at intervals.
Tableaux appropriate to the season will be featured and pantomimes will be part of an extensive program.

To miss the Christmas fiesta and bazaar will be to miss one of the events that will go to make the general scheme of entertainment for Christmas time.

GERMANY FIGHTS THE WORLD.

FOLLOWING up the peace of Munich the German government has increased the Reich standing army to one million men, making it the largest peacetime army in the world, with the exception of Russia.

Moreover, the German government is using half of its expenditure for the purpose of rearmament and the nation is regimented for a single purpose, that is, to make effective warfare.

Of course, the economic situation in Germany is bad. It has reverted to a barter system in international trade, not because of preference, but because it cannot finance trade any other way. Even Dr. Schacht, financial wizard, admits this and calls upon other nations to make it possible for Germany to go back to former trading methods. He says the new system was forced upon Germany by "American and British tariff increases and the French quota system."

Every sensible person knows that Germany is dissatisfied with its lot in the world and that its rulers have determined to use force to secure advantages whenever and wherever possible. As a result other nations are rearming in order to make sure that Hitler and his minions, including his allies, will not be able to take by force what they possess.

WELCOME SANTA CLAUS.

SANTA CLAUS, inevitable master of childish hearts, is about to pay his annual visit to the homes of The Echo.

Children are already writing letters to the good Saint, making known their dream desires, and counting the days and nights until he makes his magic entrance into their homes.

What man or woman can bear the thought of disappointed faith in the hearts of little children? What one of us would not give 'til it hurts in an effort to help fulfill juvenile hopes?

Let's make the heart of every child in Bay St. Louis glad for one Christmas day. Let's see that every child, in our community, has at least one day of unalloyed happiness, a day of joy and gladness, a day when their dreams shall come true.

CHRISTMAS EDITION

SEA Coast Echo's annual Christmas Edition will be issued next week. This number of the paper, 8 pages, will carry messages from some nearly forty business firms and individuals from Bay St. Louis and vicinity, voicing appreciation of patronage and sending forth the season's greeting. In addition to this the paper will be worth keeping. Extra copies to send away may be had at this office.

This edition will serve as an appreciation of the public good will and form a gesture appropriate to the season.

Advertisements must be handed in no later than next Wednesday.

DIVERSIFIED SERVICE

THE Secretary of State's Department this week furnished information to a woman in Nebraska regarding her great grandfather, who lived in Mississippi in 1928—T. B. J. Hadley by name. Mr. Hadley not only served in both houses of the Mississippi Legislature, but served Mississippi as Auditor of Public Accounts from 1830 to 1833. The grand-daughter did not even know the initials of her great grandfather, but only knew that he had served in an official position in Mississippi. We mention this merely to show the service that the Secretary of State's Department rendered not only to people of Mississippi, but to people of other states.

INVITATION TO THE WEALTHY

A PERSONAL invitation, on executive stationery, signed personally by Governor White, is being mailed out by the Mississippi Advertising Commission, inviting every person in the twelve states around the Great Lakes, who is worth $250,000 and over, to visit Mississippi during the winter. This invitation calls attention to the interesting places in Mississippi that can be reached over the state's new highway system.

900,000 BACK TO WORK.

ACCORDING to information furnished Secretary of State J. Walker Wood's office by Secretary of Labor Perkins private industry returned 248,000 persons to their jobs in non-agricultural pursuits during October, 1938. This is the third consecutive month, states Miss Perkins, in which an increase in private employment has been recorded, and brings the total of those who have gone back to work since July to 900,000. The pay roll increase is placed at $5,100,000 weekly.

FIERCE STRUGGLE IN CHINA.

WINTER weather is beginning to fight for the Chinese, according to reports from the Far East, where Japanese armies have been slowed down after their sweeping advances of a few months ago.

Just exactly what is the condition of affairs in China is uncertain. That guerilla tactics of the Chinese have troubled the invader is well established. The Japanese control strategic lines of communications, key cities and seaports but the evidence is conclusive that, after night-fall, few Japanese care to venture beyond the protection of their guns.

How long the Chinese will maintain their spirit of resistance is a question counter-balanced by the query as to how Japan can fight without receiving adequate economic profits out of the conquests reported. So far, the Chinese venture has been a net loss to Japan of men, munitions, money and material. Can the island empire keep up her armed advance longer than the Chinese population maintains its dogged resistance? Upon the answer to this question, which time alone will reveal, depends the outcome of the Japanese gamble for empire on a huge scale.

Meanwhile, the Chinese, it is reported, are beginning to lose hope of any assistance from the Western Powers and becoming more willing to deal with Russia. Great Britain, France and the United States have lost, or are rapidly losing, much of their prestige as the Japanese military rides roughshod over their neutral rights.

FORESTS ARE VALUABLE

JUST what do the forests of Mississippi mean to the state? The Mississippi Planning Commission gives us the following interesting figures upon this subject: The total land area of Mississippi is 29,671,680 acres, and of this amount the total forest area is 15,873,100 acres of 53.5 per cent. The total forest area on farms is 7,562,659 acres. Predominant forest types in Mississippi are Long Leaf, Short Leaf, Slash and Loblolly pines; mixed bottomland and upland hardwoods. The total number of acres in state forests, 1938, is 23,000 acres. Total forest area in federal forests, 1938, is 972,324 acres. The assessed value of timberlands and timber, 1938, was $12,856,743, while the assessed value of forest industry plants and woodland investment for the same period was $23,026,385. The number of acres of forests under protection, 1937, was 4,336,684 acres. The suggested area to be reforested in the state is 9,777,349 acres. The state has 5 forest nurseries to supply the seedlings.

INVITING TOURIST TRAVEL

THE Mississippi Advertising Commission, Ed Lipscomb, director, has expanded the Mississippi advertising program seeking tourist travel to Mississippi this winter. This expanded program has been prepared because a check of cash results obtained in the winter of 1937 has shown that the campaign conducted at that time resulted in a rather amazing increase in gasoline tax receipts during the month in which the advertising ran; because reports from the resort areas to the state last winter indicated an increase of approximately 27 per cent in tourist business at a time when Florida and other areas were suffering a decline; and because State Tax Commission reports for the first eight months of 1938 show that all lines of business affected by tourist travel have shown increases despite the fact that business in general has been cut in a national recession that forced it below the 1937 level.

AN EVER-GROWING PROBLEM.

FIFTEEN or twenty years ago the problem of improved highways was attacked upon the theory that, with a given road mileage, the simple way to complete the construction of a highway system, was to build a given number of miles a year for a definite number of years.

Two facts have upset the idea. First, new mileage has been added to every highway system and the need for additional highways is pressing. Second, highways built fifteen, or even ten years, ago are unable to meet modern traffic needs and must be relocated, rebuilt or enlarged.

Two decades ago very few highway engineers, or automobile manufacturers, had any clear conception of the speeds that would be commonplace today. "A mile a minute," used to win speedway contests but now it is the accepted pace of many motorists who travel long distances. Highways graded for forty miles-an-hour speeds are not safe for the seventy-miles-an-hour that some sane drivers attain. The same observation applies to sight-distances that safety requires.

NEW MAP BY STATE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT.

THE State Highway Department has issued a highway map, showing the roads of the state as they will be of January 1st, 1939. The map is an artistic piece of work. It is in colors, and the back of the maps is beautifully illustrated in pictures in four colors. If you have a friend from another state, who intends to visit our State, send them one of these maps.

Hollywood Notes.

ROSE of Washington Square will be the name of a picture based on the magazine story, "I Love That Man." It is a musical picture of the years since the World War and its cast will be headed by Tyrone Power, Alice Faye and Al Jolson.

Two spy stories are being prepared. They are "Confessions of a Nazi Spy," which will be followed by "Concentration Camp."

Gracie Fields' next picture will be "Sally of the Shipyards," and centers around the building of the Queen Elizabeth.

J. M. Kerrigan is to have the part of Douglas Corrigan's father in "The Flying Dutchman."

Richard Barthelmess, who has been absent from the screen three years, will have a part in "Plane No. 4," a Cary Grant-Jean Arthur picture.

A new series of Mary Boland-Charles Ruggles comedies has been started with "Sudden Money" as the first picture.

Wilbur A. Kurtz, who is known in Atlanta as "A Walking History of the Civil War," is in Hollywood as a technical adviser of "Gone With the Wind."

A story about a theatrical agent who tried to run his home on a business basis, will be entitled "Wife Under Contract" and will feature Ray Milland and Frances Dee.

Ogden Nash has completed the script of "Yesterday's Love," based on the story by Ursula Parrott called "Infidelity." It is intended for Joan Crawford.

Helen Twelvetrees, who has been out of the movies for two years, will have a featured supporting role in "Persons in Hiding," a story of G-men.

Warren Williams is the current Lone Wolf. Other actors who have portrayed the famous character in the past are H. B. Warner, Jack Holt, Bert Lytell and Francis Lederer.

Gary Cooper is scheduled to play Abraham Lincoln, Sam Houston and Christian Anderson during the coming months.

George Murphy has replaced Lew Ayres as leading man for Jeannette MacDonald in "Remember Tomorrow."

Edward Arnold is writing an autobiography and has had several tempting offers from publishers. He will give Norma Shearer the privilege of being the first to read the finished manuscript. Mr. Arnold is at present appearing in "Idiot's Delight" with Miss Shearer and Clark Gable.

David Niven is to play the part of Merle Oberon's husband in "Withering Heights."

James Stewart is now allowed to carry passengers in his plane. He recently got his private pilot's license, having eighty hours of solo flying to his credit.

James Cagney, in spite of his tough parts in pictures, does not fare for night clubs. He doesn't smoke either and only takes an occasional drink.

Some of Hollywood's darlings marry poor men in real life just as they do in their Cinderella stories. Maureen O'Sullivan, Irene Dunne, Claudette Colbert and Alice Faye are among those whose husbands are comparatively poor when their incomes are measured against those of their wives.

MARKING FOR PULPWOOD CUTTING

When pulpwood stumpage sales or the sale of any standing timber is contemplated the farm woodland owner should specify which trees are to be cut and which trees are to be left. This may be accomplished in some cases by setting up definite specifications in the timber lease or contracts and by specifying penalties which the stipulations are not followed. It is safer, however, to mark the trees to be left with paint. In the event the landowner is cutting down his own timber or has very close supervision such marking may be necessary after the cutters have been properly trained.

What Trees Should be Cut for Pulpwood

The pulp and paper mills are not buying pine pulpwood throughout a wide territory. They will take wood as small as four inches in diameter at the small end of a 5-foot stick.

Pulpwood can often be cut from dense young stands so as to improve the stand by removing cull trees and allowing for increase growth on the remaining trees. It is most unwise, and uneconomical to clear out young stands when they are growing at their fastest rate, even though most of the trees may be of pulpwood size. Frequent cuttings at intervals of from 5 to 10 years, taking out only part of the stand at each cutting, will yield more wood and more cash returns in the long run, and the owner will be able to take advantage of a most probable future rise in prices.

The following may be used as a guide in selecting trees to cut:

1. Worked out naval stores pine.
2. Crooked or poorly formed trees.
3. Weaker crowned trees in dense stands and "wolf" trees overtopping young growth.
4. Overmature, red heart.
5. Fire-scarred, insect damaged or diseased.

Trees to Leave

1. Round long leaf and slash pine.
2. Straightest and best formed.
3. Trees with good thrifty crowns.
4. Young, thrifty, fast-growing pine.
5. Healthy trees free from injury.

Select the thickest, best crowned individuals and mark them as crop trees to be reserved for future cutting. Cut any trees which compete or interfere with these "crop" trees. It is not necessary to cut small spindling individuals found under the more dominant trees unless they can be used. Thin the stand and weed it as you would a corn patch, reserving the best trees for such higher priced products as poles, piling or sawlogs. It is often possible to get several times more money for saw timber or poles than for pulpwood. By proper selection the growing stock can be built up so as to get increased rates of growth and better grades of products.

Keep out fire, protect the young growth and seedlings, build up the growing stock. To get best results:

1. Protect carefully.
2. Manage wisely.
3. Cut conservatively.

POPULATIONS

(Mississippi Guide)

FROM Russia comes a report of shortage of diapers, while in France there is an alarming decrease in the birth rate. It is estimated that if the present drop in national birth rate continues, the population in France in fifty years will drop from 40,000,000 to 28,000,000. Meanwhile, in the totalitarian states the birth rate continues to increase. Besides Russia, Germany and Italy report sizeable population increases. There were 861,000 more births than deaths in 1937 in Italy.

Colonial conquest is the motivating force behind the population increases in these countries. Greater armed force will come through increased population and Messrs. Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin are leaving no stones unturned in their regimented system to increase birth rate.

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU" CAPRA'S GREATEST TRIUMPH.

Failed as another Capra triumph, Columbia's version of the George S. Kaufman-Moss Hart Pulitzer prize play, "You Can't Take It With You," opens Sunday at the A. & G. Theater with a cast which includes Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Mischa Auer, Ann Miller and numerous others.

"You Can't Take It With You" was produced and directed by Frank Capra from the screen play by Robert Riskin. These Columbia film-makers have been lauded time and again for their "It Happened One Night," "Lady For A Day," "Lost Horizon" and "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." "You Can't Take It With You," based on the stage success for which Columbia paid $200,000, is said to exceed even the previous efforts of the two brilliant collaborators.

The new film deals with the lovable and perfectly delightful Vanderhoff family, which believes in doing whatever it wants whenever it wants to.

In their old New York home, presided over by Grandpa Vanderhoff, this uninhibited group reveals a heart-warming attitude toward life in a merry mélange of comedy, flavored with romance and tinged with pathos.

"You Can't Take It With You" is concerned, in part, with the proud aristocratic Kirby, as well as with the carefree Vanderhoffs. Kirby's monumental plan to form a huge munitions merger, a move which requires the purchase of all property within an area of twelve city blocks, is halted when Grandpa refuses to sell the Vanderhoff home at any price. Alice Sycamore, his secretary, is blocked when the boy brings his parents to dinner one night, only to discover Vanderhoff family engrossed in its various eccentric affairs.

The romance and merry-mad conflict of the two families, coupled with the enjoyable hobbies of the Vanderhoffs and their many friends, is declared to make "You Can't Take It With You" one of the outstanding productions of the season.

Prominent in the supporting cast of the new Capra film are Spring Byington, Samuel S. Hinds, Duane Taylor, Donald Meek, H. B. Warner, Halliwell Hobbs, Eddie Anderson and Lillian Yarbo. Dimitri Tiomkin composed the musical score.

W. P. A. Administrative Cost Cut Announced For Mississippi State.

(For The Sea Coast Echo)
Jackson, Dec. 14.—The Mississippi WPA has been instructed to revise its Administrative Budget downward by at least $2,500.00 a month, effective January 1st, it was announced here today by Mr. R. B. Wall, Deputy WPA Administrator. The Administrator commented that the budget cut was not a surprise, as WPA employment has been on a downward trend since last month. He pointed out, however, that it is difficult to make such adjustments at a time when more careful administrative work is necessary to avoid making mistakes in reducing the rolls. The personnel and salaries affected will be those in the higher brackets, according to Mr. Wall. WPA officials feel it is not unlikely that still further administrative budget cuts will be necessary in the near future.

SPORTS EDITOR OF METROPOLITAN DAILY SAYS GREAT GAME

Wm. McG. Keefe Gives Human Side Story and Gleans From Behind Scenes of Toy Bowl Classic.

Sports editor-in-chief, W. McG. Keefe, of the New Orleans Times-Picayune, recognized authority, sees the human side of the benefit given in New Orleans Sunday when St. Stanislaus Rockchaws and New Orleans Jesuits played on the gridiron for "sweet charity's sake," and gives deserved praise to the lads who suffered the hard knocks for two hours. He says:

"It would do the boys of St. Stanislaus and Jesuit—the boys who played in the games—good to attend the Doll and Toy Fund drive at Heinemann Park. They would see some things they would remember. They are invited."

The sports editor's story and comment follows:

Another Toy Bowl game has gone into the record and this time the Doll and Toy Fund will get the best financial boost it ever has had from the game. Ticket returns will not be in for several days but it seems safe to say the Doll and Toy Fund will get $10,000 out of the game. And that means something like 1500 additional toys for the poor children of this city.

Starting with the boys who played in the game and winding up with the board of directors and the manager of Municipal stadium with Mayor Robert Maestri and Commissioner Joe Skelly everybody who participated in the game not only should feel himself deserving of thanks from the Doll and Toy Fund committee, but each should be thankful for the opportunity of having contributed his help toward the fund.

And everyone who bought a ticket to the game, though he may feel he got 100 per cent his money's worth, can take consolation in having helped swell the toy fund.

The boys who played in the game worked the hardest, of course. They will be the only ones rewarded. Each lad who participated will receive a gold football that will serve a lifelong memento of the day he took hard knocks and bruises and put in a hard two hours' work for some poor little children.

"ZEKE" SIGNS FOR $15,000.

Henry "Zeke" Bonura, New Orleans boy, who went to school in Bay St. Louis and graduated from St. Stanislaus College, purchased by the New York Giants Sunday from the Washington Senators, has agreed to sign a contract for $15,000. "Zeke" is well and widely known in Bay St. Louis, the star of Stanislaus college athletics and who gained national reputation. He was coach at college under the tutelage of Forster Commagere.

CHADDY'S CHATS FROM HOLLYWOOD

SO much for the movie villain! It seems that being cast for his 49th "killer" role was about all poor Paul Guilfoyle could stand. "Dint' put my name on the screen," he asked, "just bill me as the Dead End Kids' father."

The next day the purse was returned with everything intact but the $40. In its place was a note which read, "I need this money to pay alimony. Someday I'll pay it back. It was unsigned, and Pat had to laugh in spite of himself.

The name of Marie Blake may not mean anything to you fans, but it does to Jeannette MacDonald. Marie is Jeannette's sister. MGM has signed her and has already started her off in a series of short subjects. Unlike Jeannette, Marie Blake will specialize in more earthly type of roles. She's especially good in hard-boiled parts and will play one in Dramatic School. We are continually amused and delighted by Whitney Bourne, a gay lass who imports a definite flair to life in Hollywood. The latest story came from a friend, who let it drop that Whitney had borrowed a dress to fly to New York in. It developed that Miss Bourne has at least thirty sleek suits, some half dozen evening gowns—and not a single dress for daytime wear. Which brings us to:

Smart Fashions advocated by the stars:

The smart wardrobe for the average girl should feature all occasion frocks. They must be fashioned of smart fabrics, have simple trims and be gay as well as practical. That is the advice of Robert Kalloek, designer at Columbia studios, who achieved this happy combination in designing the clothes for Virginia Bruce, which she wears for There's That Woman Again, in which Miss Bruce plays the role of the wife and business associate of her screen husband, Melvyn Douglas.

Blue and white polka-dot tie silk fashions a street and daytime costume for Miss Bruce. The dress with short sleeves diagonal front closing and many gored skirt, is accented with a red antelope belt and matching wide brimmed hat entirely stitched in self-color. White gloves and dark blue accessories complete the costume when worn with a Postman blue.

Aquamarine sharkskin fashions a rib-length bolero which Miss Bruce wears over a slim black wool dress. The bolero is embroidered in black with Miss Bruce's screen name of Sally on the left lapel. A fitted three-quarter coat of wool is worn over the dress and bolero and the costume is finished off with a black felt profile beret with a high reaching feather of aquamarine and matching blue gloves. Yours for simplicity, wearability and adaptability.

THOUSANDS FROM THE GULF COAST FORM LONG MOTORCADE

To Orleans Last Sunday to Attend Annual Toy Bowl Game—Stanislaus Vs. Jesuits.

That was "some" caravan or motorcade traveling from Bay St. Louis to New Orleans last Sunday forenoon.

Over twenty buses and over one hundred and fifty automobiles covered the distance from St. Stanislaus college to the stadium at City Park, New Orleans.

Motor police patrolmen from the Harrison county coast led the way and kept the formation in safe line until the South end of Rigolotti bridge was reached. This is the boundary of Orleans parish, after traveling the St. Tammany section. Here New Orleans cops met the Mississippi delegation, forming an escort of honor and for safety and continued the way into stadium grounds where it is reported ten thousand gathered, total number, to witness the annual Toy Bowl football classic, sponsored by the New Orleans Times-Picayune, featuring New Orleans Jesuit eleven and our own Rockchaws of St. S. C.

Well organized, and properly supervised, as originated and developed by the Bay St. Louis S. C. Sidelines Club, the entire program was carried out without the slightest hitch and to the credit of all concerned. It was a great and enthusiastic outpouring and well controlled within bounds by intelligent planning and able executive application.

Weather was ideal. The warm, ingratiating sun of the Sunny South in practically mid-winter was warm enough to be comfortable and to keep down even the evening chill that comes with the advent of later afternoon hours.

During the halves of the game both sides gave interesting exhibitions, to the entertainment of the thousands.

Jesuit Band, reported 125 members, in their striking uniforms of blue and white, gave drill maneuvers, flag presentation and music, both pleasing to the eye and ear. The Blue Jays are well drilled and their music received generous and deserved praise.

This was followed by the appearance of St. Stanislaus Band on the stadium ground, marching in single file. Uniforms of red and white satin lined capes immediately caught the eye and applause of both sides of the stadium stand. Following this line were young ladies and children of both St. Joseph Academy and the Bay St. Louis city schools. Dressed in caps and handkerchiefs over head of red, green and brown, respectively, it was soon plain to the eye that the group was forming one huge Christmas tree. The figures in green forming the upper portion while the number in brown forming the trunk of the great tree. Smaller girls in red formed the base section.

This creation elicited much applause. The formation clicked without the slightest hitch.

In the stand on the Gulf Coast side members of Bay High and Central School Band discoursed a number of selections from time to time, directed by Prof. W. Morgan, the school's instructor.

Brother Romuald, of the college, was in charge of St. Stanislaus Band.

It was a gala day. The Gulf Coast joined in the spirit of Bay St. Louis' enthusiasm and thus by their loyalty to a Coast institution made not only a display but an impression equal to that of the New Orleans side.

STUDENT SUSTAINS PAINFUL INJURY

Miss Carrie Lynn Nolan, daughter of Mrs. Carrie Nolan, of 118 Carroll avenue, was the victim of slight but a painful mishap while en route to the football game at New Orleans Sunday forenoon. An occupant of one of the county buses, which was unavoidably bumped into from the rear, the young Misses were thrown and sustained such injuries about the neck that developed intense pain while seated on the grandstand and during progress of the game. It was necessary to summon a physician and later, after first aid, she was conveyed to the Charity Hospital by ambulance, where her back was strapped and such attention necessary was given. She was able to return home that night and was confined to her bed.

DUCK HUNTING SEASON TO OFFICIALLY CLOSE DEC. 29 IN MISSISSIPPI

"Kills Have Been Good" Game Com. Announces—Dove Hunting Continues.

(For The Sea Coast Echo)

Jackson, Miss., Dec. 15.—With the duck hunting season nearing its close, State Game and Fish Commission officials have been advised by sportsmen that "kills have been good." The season officially closes December 29.

Increased seasons and amended regulations are in effect this year, several species being on the eligible list after several years protection.

Wood-ducks were retained on the no-season schedule under regulations prescribed by the Biological Survey. Other seasons now open include quail, doves, rabbits, squirrels, and deer in some counties.

After a two and half months closed season, dove hunting reopens December 20 in counties north of U. S. Highway 80, according to State Game and Fish Commission officials. Opening of the season in this area gives a statewide open season which continues through January 31. The season opened in counties south of U. S. Highway 80 on November 20.

Counties in which deer hunting seasons reopen on December 20 are Tunica, Quitman, Panola, Tallahatchie, Leflore, Sunflower, Yazoo, Humphreys, Warren, Bolivar, Greene, Wayne, Adams, Wilkinson, Jefferson, Claiborne, Issaquena, Sharkey and Washington. The season is closed on deer in the other counties. In the open counties it closes January 1.

Local Workmen Show Skill in Successful Factorywork Duplication

Customers, and visitors of the new Bay Mercantile Company's Department Store, not only become interested in the new and varied stock but particularly admire the new fixtures, the bulk of which were manufactured at home by local skill and labor.

We have commented on the work turned out by the local firm of Garcia & Carr for the modern sales counters, tables, etc., which they turned out. In addition there are the wall cases, perfect in every detail as to resemble the high grade workmanship of factory-made. These were created by two skilled workmen of Bay St. Louis, Bud Little and Harold Johnson.

Mr. Osinach expresses satisfaction for a double reason. He is one hundred per cent with the product and secondly for the reason manufactured at home. All of this work is outstanding and will bear minute inspection.
